TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF AWARD

- Applicants shall be invited for interview on the understanding that they are in a fit condition to attend and that they shall conduct themselves with decorum and propriety during the interview.
- HELP (comprising HELP University & HELP Academy) reserves the right to revoke any award due to failure in examinations, withdrawal from programme before completion (exception for credits transfer students) and/or non-compliance with the Rules and Regulations of HELP. The recipient will be required to repay the award amount used up to the point of termination from the program.
- This award does not cover any administration fees, exam fees and re-sit/re-enrolment fees which must be paid by all award recipients.
- Applicants who have agreed to accept the award are required to pay all administration fees by the date specified by HELP.
- Applicants who have agreed to accept the award are required to drop any award offered by HELP or any entities under the HELP Group.
- Incomplete and illegible award application forms will not be accepted.
- All decisions of the Award Selection Committee are final and no appeals will be entertained.
- All the award are not transferable, and where applicable, may not be redeemed for cash or other alternatives.
- HELP shall not be held liable for any accident or mishap that may befall candidates at or in passage to the interview sessions.
- Applicants must be of sound character and should not have any criminal convictions or record and should not have been involved in any misconduct which may bring HELP University into disrepute.
- HELP reserves the right to involve award applicants in interviews, advertisements, photography or other publicity related activities for the purpose of promoting HELP as a leading educational institution.
- Short-listed applicants will be notified by HELP of the date, time and venue of the interview via email when interview is deemed needed. Please ensure that your email address is valid and accessible at all time.
- This award is only meant for students who are currently undertaking UEC (Senior Middle 3) examinations in the year 2020.
- The names of successful candidates will be announced. They must confirm acceptance of the award by a date specified by HELP.
- All award recipients are required to undergo a series of leadership programs that will develop their leadership skills and abilities.
- All award recipients are advised to fulfil certain hours of voluntary service to assist the Marketing/Academic Department in administration, peer counselling, extra-curricular activities and marketing events.
- The award shall be reviewed yearly where attainment of a minimum CGPA 3.00 or equivalent for degree programmes is required to be eligible for continuation of the award for the following year.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE AWARD

- The awards are given on full or partial course fee only. The recipient is responsible for payment of all other administrative or external fees (if any) unless otherwise specified.
- The awards may not be converted into cash refund unless the specified fees have been paid by the recipient.
- The awards are only valid for study at the institution specified for each of the programmes.
- For modular programmes where course fees are charged by the subjects, the total award amount is divided equally by the total number of subjects and will be used to settle course fees payable to HELP.
- Should the recipient discontinue his/her studies in the programme, the award amount is neither refundable nor transferable to another course.
- Should the recipient discontinue his/her studies in the programme without valid reason(s), the recipient will be required to repay the award amount used upon withdrawal.
- Should the recipient be found to have violated any academic or general rules and regulations of the institution (HELP University/ HELP Academy), the award may be revoked.
